--Alternatively, one could create an immunoassay in which wPTH is either precipitated from solution or otherwise differentiated in a solution, as in a conventional precipitating assays or turbidometric assays. For example, one can use at least three antibodies to form a precipitating mass. In addition to the initial wPTH sequence antibody and a C-terminal antibody, one can use at least a third antibody which attaches to the mid portion of PTH. The combined mass of wPTH and the at least three antibodies would form a labeled precipitating mass which can be measured by conventional techniques. Another method would be to couple the initial wPTH sequence antibody to colloidal solid supports, such as latex particles.--

--More specifically, one can create a signal antibody by iodinating 50 micrograms of affinity purified goat anti-(1-8) PTH antibody (Scantibodies Laboratory, Inc., Santee California, U.S.A.) by oxidation with chloramine T, incubation for 25 seconds at room temperature with 1 millicurie of 125-I radioisotope and reduction with sodium metabisulfate. Unincorporated 125-I radioisotope is separated from the 125-I-Goat anti-(1-8) PTH signal antibody by passing the iodination mixture over a PD-10 desalting column (Pharmacia, Uppsala, Sweden) and following the manufacturers instructions. The fractions collected from the desalting column are measured in a gamma counter and those fractions representing the 125-I-Goat anti-(1-8) PTH antibody are pooled and diluted to approximately 300,000 DPM (disintegrations per minute) per 100 microliters. This solution is the tracer solution to be used in the whole PTH IRMA.--
